और यह प्रतीत होता है कि ऐसी पाइपलाइन बिछाने के लिए इस अभिसूचना के उपाखंड अनुसूची में वर्णित भूमि में उपयोग के अधिकार का अर्जन करना आवश्यक है;

अतः, अब, केन्द्रीय सरकार, पेट्रोलियम और खनिज पाइपलाइन [भूमि में उपयोग के अधिकार का अर्जन] अधिनियम, 1962 [1962 का 50] की धारा 3 की उपधारा [1] द्वारा प्रवृत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए पाइपलाइन बिछाने के लिए उसमें उपयोग के अधिकार का अर्जन करने के अपने आशय की घोषणा करती है।

उक्त अनुसूची में वर्णित भूमि में हितवन्ध कोई व्यक्ति उस तारीख से, जिसको, भारत के राजपत्र में यथा प्रकाशित इस अभिसूचना की प्रतियाँ सार्वजनिक जनता को उपलब्ध करा दी जाती हैं, 21 दिन के भीतर, भूमि के नीचे पाइपलाइन बिछाने के संबंध में या उसमें उपयोग के अधिकार का अर्जन करने संबंधी लिखित रूप में आवेप श्री बी.एन. अखौरी, सक्षम प्राधिकारी, इंडियन ऑयल कार्पोरेशन लिमिटेड, हल्दिया-बरीनी क्रूड पाइपलाइन परियोजना, विलियम्स टाउन, कॉलेज रोड, देवघर-814112 [बिहार] को कर सकेगा।

का.आ. 1808.—केन्द्रीय सरकार को यह प्रतीत होता है कि लोकहित में ऐसा आवश्यक है कि पश्चिमी बंगाल राज्य में विद्यमान हल्दिया-मोरीग्राम-राजबन्ध पाइपलाइन से शाखा सम्पर्क लाइन के माध्यम से बज-बज तक पेट्रोलियम उत्पादों के परिवहन के लिए इंडियन आयल कारपोरेशन लिमिटेड द्वारा बसुदेबपुर गाँव से बज-बज तक पाइपलाइन बिछाई जानी चाहिए ;

और ऐसा प्रतीत होता है कि उक्त पाइपलाइन बिछाने के प्रयोजनों के लिए इस अधिसूचना में उपाबद्ध अनुसूची में वर्णित भूमि में उपयोग के अधिकार का अर्जन करना आवश्यक है ;

अतः अब, केन्द्रीय सरकार, पेट्रोलियम और खनिज पाइपलाइन भूमि में उपयोग के अधिकार का अर्जन अधिनियम, 1962 (1962 का 50) की धारा 3 उपधारा (1) द्वारा प्रदत्त शक्तियों का प्रयोग करते हुए, उनमें उपयोग के अधिकार का अर्जन करने के अपने आशय की घोषणा करती है,

उक्त अनुसूची में वर्णित भूमि में हितबद्ध कोई व्यक्ति, उस तारीख से जिसको, भारत के राजपत्र में यथा प्रकाशित इस अधिसूचना की प्रतियाँ साधारण जनता को उपलब्ध करा दी जाती हैं, से इक्कीस दिन के भीतर भूमि के नीचे पाइपलाइन के बिछाने के संबंध में या उनमें उपयोग के अधिकार का अर्जन करने संबंधी लिखित रूप में आक्षेप सक्षम प्राधिकारी इंडियन आयल कारपोरेशन लिमिटेड, हल्दिया-बज-बज पाइपलाइन परियोजना एस.डी.ओ. आफिस बिल्डिंग, पोस्ट आफिस खन्जनचक, जिला-मिदनापुर-721606, पश्चिमी बंगाल को कर सकेगा :

Second party-workman in person.

AWARD

By an Order No. L-12012/216/79-D.II.A dated 15-1-1981, the Desk Officer, Ministry of Labour, Government of India, New Delhi has referred an industrial dispute as stated in the Schedule of above order between the above parties u/s. 10(1) of the I.D. Act, 1947, for adjudication initially to the Industrial Tribunal of Shri G. S. Barot and thereafter it was transferred from one Tribunal to another Tribunal and ultimately, it was transferred to this Tribunal by an appropriate order of the Government.

2. The second party-workman has filed his statement of claim at Ex. 2, inter alia, stating that the workman was a permanent employee of State Bank of India and that he was initially appointed at Dholka Branch of State Bank of India (hereinafter referred to as 'the Bank') in the year 1965; that thereafter the workman was transferred to Odhav, Ahmedabad Branch; that the workman has completed about 13 years of service with the Bank; that the workman was suspended vide order dated 29-10-1975; that the Bank continued the workman under suspension for more than three years, without conducting any inquiry; that the workman was an active Trade Union worker and, therefore, the Bank was keeping rigid vigil on the workman; that the workman represented before the Bank about inordinate delay in conducting the inquiry; that the Bank immediately started conducting inquiry and ultimately, with a pre-conceived idea, issued dismissal order, dated 19-6-1979; that the Government of India, having examined the dispute, referred the same dispute before the Tribunal for adjudication, that the management of the Bank issued the charge sheet for alleged misconduct on 20-5-76; that the charges are as under :—

- (i) Doing an act prejudicial to the interests of the Bank involving or likely to involve the Bank in serious loss.
- (ii) Breach of rule of business of the Bank or instructions for the running of the department.

that the circumstances which led to the issue of the charge sheet are as under as claimed by the Bank while issuing the charge sheet :

"On 28th October, 1975, you were deputed to Ahmedabad Main Branch, alongwith Shri U. N. Vaghela, Messenger-cum-Waterman in the Bank's hired jeep to bring remittance of fresh notes amounting to Rs. 4 lacs. Other persons who accompanied you to bring remittance were Shri B. S. Jat, Watchman, Rakhial (Ahmedabad) Branch and M. K. Rathod, Jeep Driver.

While making payments of the said remittance to you at the Ahmedabad Main Branch, excess payment of Rs. 10,000 was made. The payment made to you was Rs. 4,10,000 (Rs. four lacs ten thousand only) instead of

Rs. 4,00,000 (Rs. four lacs only). This fact came to your notice, immediately when payment of the said remittance was made to you but you did not disclose it intentionally. When the cash box containing the said remittance was put in the jeep you intentionally sent Shri Vaghela to bring Pan and cigarettes and sent Shri Jat, the Watchman to the banking hall of Ahmedabad Main Branch to bring fresh notes of one rupee denomination for Rs. 600. As soon as these persons went away, you unauthorisedly and in contravention of the instructions regarding remittances opened the cash box lying in the jeep and took out 5 packets of Rs. 20 denominations notes. In the meantime Shri Vaghela came back with Pan and cigarettes and observed that the said cash box had been tampered with by you. He inquired of Shri M. K. Rathod, the driver of the jeep as to whether the cash box had been opened. Shri Rathod replied in the affirmative and also told that some money had been taken out by you. Further as you could not lock the box and obtain as required in terms of the instructions in this regard, you requested to Shri Rathod to lock the box and chain with the Jeep. Ultimately the box and chain were locked by Shri Vaghela. . . . . While out of 5 packets of Rs. 20 denominations notes taken out by you from the cash box at Ahmedabad Main Branch, you retained 3 packets with you and gave 2 packets to Shri Vaghela to keep him quiet. On 29th October, 1975 when the incident came to the light, 3 packets and 2 packets of Rs. 20 denominations notes each were collected from your residence and Shri Vaghela's residence respectively by Cashiers of the Ahmedabad Main Branch who had been to Odhav Branch for this purpose."

It is the case of the concerned workman that inquiry was conducted against the circumstances narrated above; that if the charges were of grave nature, which required dismissal of the workman, it is not known as to how the Bank kept the workman under suspension for three years and that they issued charge sheet after one year from the date on which the incident took place. The workman has stated that he was not afforded proper and reasonable opportunity to defend his case before the Inquiry Officer; that the inquiry is illegal and void. The workman has prayed that the action of the Bank dismissing the workman is illegal; that the inquiry is illegal. The workman has prayed for direction to the Bank to reinstate the workman on his original post with full back wages and continuity of service.

3. The first party-Bank has contested this reference and filed their written statement vide Ex. 3, inter alia, denying the contentions and averments made by the concerned workman in his statement of claim. The Bank has submitted that they had appointed Shri R. R. Bajaj vide their letter dated 8-7-1975 as the Enquiry Officer for conducting the departmental inquiry against Shri Parikh i.e. the concerned workman for acting in a way prejudicial to the interest of the Bank and also committing breach of the rules of business of the Bank, that before Shri Bajaj could commence the work of inquiry, Shri Bajaj applied for leave preparatory to voluntary retirement and, therefore, the inquiry could not be proceeded with; that the Bank had to appoint another officer as the Inquiry Officer, namely, Shri R. K. Patel to preside over the inquiry against Shri Parikh vide their letter dated 12-7-1977; that before Shri Patel could proceed with the work of inquiry, he was transferred to our Central Office at Bombay; that the Bank, therefore, appointed another officer, Shri S. Ramakrishnan to conduct the inquiry against Shri Parikh vide its letter dated 22-12-1978 that Shri Ramakrishnan was specifically instructed to complete the inquiry without undue delay; that before the inquiry commence, the said Inquiry Officer, Shri Ramakrishnan was appointed as Regional Manager of the Bank; that as there were number of inquiries pending conclusions, the Bank had decided as a general policy to reinstate all the delinquent employees who had been put under suspension before December, 1978; that pursuant to this direction of the Central Bank office of the Bank, Shri Parikh was reinstated on 4-1-1979 subject to the outcome of the departmental inquiry pending against him; that the inquiry against Shri Parikh was not delayed on any extraneous or mala fide consideration, but it was only due to the circumstances beyond the Bank's control.

The first party-Bank has further submitted in their written statement that ample time was given to the concerned workman to prepare his defence; that three years elapsed since his suspension and that the charges were known to him; that the concerned workman had already confessed the guilt in his own handwriting as per Annexure-I. The first party-Bank has denied in the written statement that Shri Parikh was maliciously implicated in a fabricated charge of misconduct. The first party has submitted that the charge of gross misconduct on the part of Shri Parikh was very well founded; that the inquiry conducted against the concerned workman was fair and impartial in accordance with the principles of natural justice; that the Disciplinary Authority, after considering the evidence recorded in the said inquiry proceedings, the findings of the Inquiry Officer and the averments and submission made by the concerned workman, when the aforesaid show cause notice regarding the proposed punishment of dismissal was served on the concerned workman, came to the conclusion that the proven gross misconduct of the concerned workman warranted imposition of punishment of dismissal and therefore, imposed the punishment of dismissal on the concerned workman. The first party has prayed that the concerned workman is not entitled to claim any of the reliefs as prayed for by him in the statement of claim or any other reliefs. The Bank has further prayed that the reference is required to be rejected.

4. Both the parties have submitted several documentary evidence in support of their respective claims and statements.

5. The second party-workman has submitted a Purshis Ex. 52 dated 4-1-1993 stating that "the workman in the aforesaid reference does not dispute about legality and validity of the inquiry proceedings; that the workman shall make submissions on the basis of perverse findings."

6. Thereafter, the matter was adjourned from time to time in order to provide an opportunity of being heard to both the parties. The second party-workman has not led any evidence regarding victimisation back wages and/or perverse findings.

7. On 21-6-1990 at Ex. 39, the concerned workman, Shri P. N. Parikh has filed a Purshis submitting that "he is not interested in reinstatement and press the reference for back wages only as the workman is gainfully employed. As far as back wage is concerned, I leave the same to the discretion of the Hon. Tribunal".

8. On 3-2-1997 vide Ex. 57, the concerned workman has stated that he has produced his written arguments before the Inquiry Officer and those arguments should be considered final arguments in the matter and necessary order may please be passed.

9. On 4-3-1997 at Ex. 58, the concerned workman has stated that he does not want to lead any evidence or produce any documents in the matter; that he does not want to make any oral submissions in the matter.

10. The first party-Bank has examined on Shri Dhirajlal Ratilal on the point of back wages on 18-3-1997 at Ex. 59 Shri Dhirajlal, Ratilal has stated on oath in his chief examination that he was working with the first party from 1974 to 1982 as an Accountant. He has reiterated the facts stated in the written statement Ex. 3. He has further stated in his chief examination that the concerned workman had met him before 10 years and at that time he had informed him that he was working with Asian Paints as a Labour Officer at Ankleshwar.

Shri Dhirajlal, Ratilal has not been cross examined as no one was present on behalf of the second party-workman.

11. The first party-Bank has filed their closing Purshis at Ex. 60 on 18-3-1997.

12. Shri G. N. Vahiya, learned Advocate has appeared on behalf of the first party-Bank. No one has appeared on behalf of the second party-workman.

13. I have gone through the records and papers of this case and have considered arguments of learned Advocate Shri G. N. Vahiya for the first party-Bank and find that the reference is required to be rejected.

14. The second party-workman has filed a Purshis Ex. 52, inter alia, stating that the workman in the aforesaid reference does not dispute about the legality and validity of the inquiry proceedings; that the workman shall make submissions on the basis of perverse findings. From the record, it is found that the concerned workman has not led any evidence regarding the findings. The concerned workman has also not led any evidence regarding victimisation and back wages. Regarding the back wages, the concerned workman has filed a Purshis Ex. 39 stating that he is not interested in reinstatement and that he is pressing the reference for back wages only as he is gainfully employed. He has further stated that as far as back wages are concerned, he leaves the same to the discretion of this Tribunal. The concerned workman has submitted yet another Purshis Ex. 57 stating that necessary orders may please be passed taking into consideration the written arguments produced by him before the Inquiry Officer. The second party-workman has once again submitted a Purshis Ex. 58 stating that an award may please be passed considering whatever documents are on record of this case. He has also stated that he does not want to lead any evidence or produce any documents in the matter. He has also stated in the said purshis that he does not want to make any oral submissions in the matter.

15. The first party-Bank has examined one Shri Dhirajlal Ratilal in the matter at Ex. 59 on 18-3-1997. Shri Dhirajlal Ratilal has stated in his chief examination on oath that he was working for the past 39 years with the first party-Bank as an Accountant. He has supported the case of the first party and has stated that when he had met the concerned workman before 10 years, the concerned workman had informed him that he was working as a Labour Officer in the Asian Paints at Ankleshwar. Shri Dhirajlal Ratilal was not cross examined as no one was present on behalf of the second party-workman. The second party-workman himself was also not present when he was called out.

16. It is pertinent to note hear that the second party-workman has stated in his letter dated 29-10-1975 addressed to the Branch Manager, State Bank of India, Odhava Branch which is at Ex. 22 that "I was not actually wanted to keep this excess cash with me but the circumstances, so, arise and I cash with me but the circumstances, so, arise and I became the victim of the same incidence".

17. Under the facts and circumstances of the case and in view of above discussion, it is crystal clear that the second party-workman failed to establish his case as per his statement of claim Ex. 2. The second party-workman has not led any evidence to prove that he was victimised due to his union activities. The charges levelled against the concerned workman are proved in the domestic inquiry. The domestic inquiry is not under challenge before me. On the strength of the findings of the Inquiry Officer, the second party-workman was dismissed from the Bank. The findings of the Inquiry Officer are also not under challenge before me. The second party-workman has not led even an iota of evidence before this Tribunal after having admitted the legality and propriety of the inquiry proceedings at Ex. 52. The second party-workman is not interested in reinstatement and he is pressing this reference only for back wages. He has filed a Purshis to this effect at Ex. 39. He has further stated in the second Purshis that he is painfully employed; that as far as back wages are concerned, he has left the same to the discretion of this Tribunal. On the other hand, the first party-Bank has taken pains to prove their case before this Tribunal by lead in oral evidence and produced necessary documents in the matter. It is the duty of the second party-workman to prove his case before this Tribunal, but he has failed to do so. The concerned workman is not interested in reinstatement and he is only interested in the back wages. As far as back wages are concerned, he has left the said issue to be decided by this Tribunal. He has stated in his Purshis Ex. 39 on 21-6-1990 that he is gainfully employed. In my opinion, when the concerned workman is gainfully employed and he has not led any evidence on the point of back wages and victimisation, it will not be in the fitness of things to grant him any back wages. In these premises, I pass following order :—

BEFORE SHRI B. K. SRIVASTAVA PRESIDING OFFICER, CENTRAL GOVERNMENT INDUSTRIAL TRIBUNAL-CUM- LABOUR COURT, PANDU NAGAR, DEOKI PALACE ROAD, KANPUR.

V. N. Sekhari, President, U. P. Bank, Employees Federation, 26/104, Birhana Road, Kanpur.

AND

President, Awadh Gramin Bank 8-B-192 Nirala Nagar, Lucknow.

AWARD

1. Central Government, Ministry of Labour, New Delhi, vide its Notification No. L-12012/148/94-IR (B-1), dated 16-10-1995 has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal :—

Whether the action of the Chairman, Awadh Gramin Bank, Lucknow in terminating the services of Shri Shiv Prakash Verma, without following mandatory provisions of the I. D. Act, 1947, is legal and justified ? If not, he is entitled to what relief ?

2. The case of the concerned workman Shiv Prakash Verma is that he was engaged as Messenger on 17-4-1989 by the opposite party Awadh Gramin Bank at Maurawa Branch and continued to work upto 7-1-1993. Although he was given wages at daily rate work was being taken of permanent nature. During the last one year preceding his termination on 7-1-1993 he has completed more than 240 days when his services were brought to an end. No Notice pay and retrenchment compensation was given hence this termination is bad in law. This termination is also alleged to be bad being in breach of section 25-G and H of I. D. Act.

3. In the written statement the opposite party bank has alleged that the concerned workman was not engaged as a messenger. Instead he was engaged to bring water for the office which was not of permanent nature. He left the job of his own. He was not a regular employee and his name was not on the role.

4. In the rejoinder nothing has been said.

5. In support of his case the concerned workman Shiv Prakash Verma W.W. 1 has been examined. Besides W. 1 to W-9 documents have been filed. In rebuttal there is evidence of Manager Ram Deen Maurya M.W. 1. Further there Ext. M-1 to M-36 vouchers through which payment is alleged to have been made.

6. The first point which needs consideration is as to whether concerned workman was engaged as a messenger or as a waterman. Shiv Prakash W.W. 1 has stated that he was engaged as messenger whereas Ram Deen Maurya has said that he was engaged to supply water to the office. In this regard reference may be made to Ext. W-9 a letter dated 8-1-1993 which has been issued by the General Manager by which it was ordered that the concerned workman should be relieved w.e.f. 8-1-1993, and some body else should be engaged in his behalf and change of persons should be effected after every 25 days. It further shows that Shiv Prakash was engaged for office work. Ext W-2 is letter dated 11-1-1993 by which the manager had informed the General Manager, that concerned workman has been removed as per direction of the General Manager and he had worked for 204 days in the year 1992 and for six days in the year 1993. Thus in all he had completed 290 days. The tenor of this letter Ext. W-9 would go to show that concerned workman was engaged for doing office work. That belies the version of the management that he was engaged to do the work of supplying the water. Hence my conclusion is that the concerned workman was engaged to do office work which was of permanent nature. He was removed from service under direction of the General Manager to deny him benefit of various provisions of Industrial Law which is certainly an act of Unfair Labour Practice.

7. It has been shown from Ext. W-2 that according to own admission of the management the concerned workman had done work for 240 days in a year. It has also been held that he was engaged to do permanent nature of work, hence if no work was given to him on sundays and other holidays, the concerned workman was not to be faulted. This break in service was not because of workman, but instead of Unfair Labour Practice of the management, hence sundays and holidays of one year should also be included in it as these breaks are being alleged as artificial breaks. In this way it is held that concerned workman has completed 240 days in a year preceeding his retrenchment. Admittedly no notice and retrenchment compensation has been paid to him. Hence his termination is being in breach of section 25-F of I. D. Act is bad in law.

8. There is no evidence to prove breach of provisions of section 25-G and H of I. D. Act, hence this issue is decided against the workman for want of proof.

9 I am further of the view that the stand of the concerned management that the concerned workman had left the job of his own is after though and false. No doubt Ram Deen Maurya has stated like this but to my mind he is not speaking truth as according to Ext. W-9 manager was directed to remove the concerned workman from service and consequently he was removed from service vide Ext. W-9 as well. On the basis of this overwhelming documentary evidence, I have no hesitation in accepting the case of the concerned workman that he had not left the job of his own.

10. In the end my award is that termination of the concerned workman being in breach of section 25-F of I. D. Act is bad in law and he will be entitled for reinstatement but without back wages.

B. K. SRIVASTAVA, Presiding Officer.

AWARD

1. Central Government Ministry of Labour New Delhi vide its notification No.L-41012/13/91-IRDU dated 11-10-91 has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal :

“Whether the claim of the Rashtriya Chaturth Shreni Rail Mazdoor Congress, Jhansi that Shri Prakash S/O Shri Kishori worked continuously from 24-10-81 to 18-8-85, DEN (North) Central Railway, Jhansi and that his services were terminated w.e.f. 19-8-85 is correct? If not what relief Shri Prakash is entitled to ?

2. The case of the concerned workman Shri Prakash is that he was engaged as casual Labour by the opposite party Central Railway on 24-10-81 under D.R.M. Jhansi. He had completed more than 120 days hence he acquired temporary status under para 2501 of Railway Estt. Manual. Further he worked from that day upto 18-8-85 continuously. His services were terminated w.e.f. 19-8-85 without payment of retrenchment compensation and notice pay. Hence this termination is bad.

3. The opposite party has filed reply in which it has been alleged that railway has not an Industry. On facts it has been alleged that the engagement of the concerned workman was done in defiance of ban imposed by the Railway Board. Hence his engagement was cancelled.

4. In the rejoinder all the fact have been denied.

5. As regard the question of railway being an Industry, it is no longer a subject matter of dispute. Now it has become settle law that railway is an industry. Hence this point is decided against the Management.

6. Now the question of Section 25F will be considered. R. K. Wadhwa PW1 Grade-II MW(1) has stated that concerned workman had worked from 24-10-81 to 18-1-82 as MRCL under PW1 (R) Dabra. There after he worked from 23-4-82 to 14-5-82. There after he himself left the job. Since the concerned workman has not worked thereafter there is no entry in the muster roll. He has further stated that Ext. W-1 and Ext. W-2 the letter filed by the concerned workman are not genuine. On the other hand concerned workman Sri Prakash WW(1) has stated that he had continuously worked from 24-10-81 to 19-8-85 as Khalasi but no casual labour card was issued. The oral evidence adduced by the management is contrary to pleading. In the written statement the employment of concerned workman was not disputed. Instead it was alleged that as his employment was in breach of ban imposed by the railway Board, his engagement was cancelled. On the face of this pleading the oral evidence of management witness that concerned workman has not worked and had left the job of his own is not trust worthy. On the other hand there is consistent evidence of concerned workman that he continuously worked during the period alleged. The Railway has not filed Muster Roll which would have proved the number of days of working of concerned workman. In its absence I accept the evidence of concerned workman and hold that he had completed more than 240 days in a year preceding in his termination. It is further held that no retrenchment compensation and notice pay has been given to him hence this termination is bad being in breach of Section 25F I.D. Act.

7. Accordingly my award is that termination of award is that termination of concerned workman is bad he is entitled for reinstatement with back wages from the date of reference.

This dispute coming on for final hearing on Tuesday, the 24th day of December, 1996 upon perusing the Claim, counter and all other material papers on record and upon hearing the arguments of Tvl. K. Chandru and D. Bharath Advocates appearing for the petitioner-union and of Tvl. T. S. Gopalan, P. Ibrahim Kalifulla, S. Ravindran, Advocates appearing for the management, and this dispute having stood over till this day for consideration, this Tribunal made the following

The Government of India in their Order No. L-12011/7/86-D.IV.A/IR.B.III Ministry of Labour dated 28-5-1990 referred this dispute to this Tribunal u/s. 10(1)(d) of the Industrial Disputes Act, 1947 to adjudicate the following issue :

"whether the action of the management of Karur Vysya Bank Ltd., Karur in terminating the services of Shri Anderson Colin. K. Balachandran, A. Joseph, P. Ganesan, T. R. Venkatachalapathy and A. George, Mansingh w.e.f. 2-3-86 is justified? If not, to what relief are the concerned workmen entitled?"

2. On service of notice both parties appeared and filed their claim statement and counter statement respectively.

3. The main averments found in the claim statement filed by the petitioner union are as follows :

The Government of India is the appropriate government in respect of banking companies. The engagement of contract labour was abolished with effect from 1-3-1977 through notification dated 9-12-76. The respondent bank shifted their head office and moved into a new building at Karur and with a view to exploit these workmen who were engaged for cleaning, sweeping and watching their premises were labelled as contract labour. By this method the management was able to get cheap labour and also keep them in tender hooks as they cannot demand any benefit. The authorities constituted under the Contract Labour Act launched a prosecution against the respondent bank on the complaint given by the petitioner union. The High Court was pleased to dismiss the criminal Misc. Petition No. 4222/1986 filed by the respondent bank. The criminal proceedings was filed before the Judicial I Class Magistrate, Kuthiahalai in CC. 203/87. The respondent bank filed criminal appeal no. 88/1988 and the appeal was allowed. The respondent continued to treat the workman as contract workman. Out of 18 workmen 7 belong to the watch and ward category and the rest were doing sweeping and cleaning work. The petitioner union issued a strike notice dated 22-6-1986 and the Assistant Labour Commissioner (Central) initiated conciliation proceedings which ended in the failure report. The petitioner union filed W. P. No. 1643/87 before the High Court of Judicature at Madras and on the direction given by the High Court to reconsider the decision, the Government of India have referred the issue for adjudication. Except the workmen concerned in the dispute, other workmen employed in sweeping were taken by the respondent bank as direct employees. The action of the respondent bank terminating the services of six workmen is highly illegal. It is not open to the respondent bank to contend that they were engaged as contract workmen. Thus the six workmen as watchmen were doing the work connected with the bank and the work is of a permanent and perennial nature. Each one of the six workmen were paid consolidated salary of Rs. 450/- as against the regular employees holding such position drawing Rs. 1200/- p.m. The bank was indulged in unfair labour practice which is totally prohibited u/s. 25T of the I.D. Act. The termination of these workmen is contrary to Sec. 33 of the I.D. Act. As the bank had not given them any compensation for the three years service rendered by each one of them, their termination is contrary to Sec. 25F of the workmen w.e.f. 2-3-1986 with backwages and all other attendant benefits.

4. The main averments found in the counter filed by the respondent are as follows :

To raise a valid dispute u/s. 2-K of the I. D. Act, the dispute should have been raised by a substantial action of the workmen of the establishment. This dispute has not been raised by substantial section of the workmen. The petitioner union should prove its authority and competence to take up the cause of these workmen. The petitioner union lacks authority and competence to raise a dispute in respect of employees of Security Bureau. When the respondent bank was shifted their head office to the new building in September 1983 they have taken insurance against fire, lightning, malicious damage to the property. With a view to provide additional security they entered into a contract on 13-9-1986 with one Security Detective Bureau who were providing security arrangement and they agreed to deploy seven security guards and one security sargent for the purpose of security arrangement in the central office complex of the respondent. As per the agreement the security detective Bureau shall be responsible for payment of all salaries, wages, allowances etc. payable to the security personnel. The security bureau also undertake to cover eligible members of its security force under the Employees Provident Fund and Family Pension Schemes and further the bureau undertakes to comply with other statutory requirements such as leave bonus and gratuity to its the members of the security force. The members of the security force provided by the security detective bureau shall be the employees of the security detective bureau and not the principal and any dispute between the security detective bureau and security force shall have no bearing on the principal. The respondent used to engage persons less than 15 in number through one Perumal for cleaning and sweeping of the premises and maintenance of garden. These security guards were also deployed to other establishments. They were not the workmen employed as contract labour hired in or in connection with the work of the respondent establishment. Their employment with the security detective bureau would not attract the provisions of the contract labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act, by reason of their deployment to the respondent's establishment. Due to the needless interference by the petitioner union into the affairs of the security detective bureau they terminated the contract w.e.f. 1-3-86. Subsequently they sent communications to M/s. Anderson Collin, K. Balachandran, A. Joseph, P. Ganesan, T. R. Venkatachalapathi, and A. George Mansingh and directed them to report to Regional Office, Coimbatore for posting. Subsequent to 1-3-1986 the respondent did not entered into any security arrangement with any person nor has it employed any security force. The engagement of security guard by the respondent would not attract the provisions of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Act and therefore the notification issued u/s. 10(1) has no relevance. There is no provision in the Act that the contract labour should be treated as employees of the principal employer, that they should be absorbed in the services of the principal employer. The workmen concerned in this dispute were directed to report at their office of the security detective bureau at Coimbatore for posting on 1-3-1986. Hence there was no termination of employment. Award may be passed dismissing the claim.

4. One witness was examined on the side of the petitioner and Exs. W-1 to W-16 have been marked. One witness was examined on the side of the management and Exs. M.1 to M.15 have been marked.

5. The only point for our consideration is : "Whether the action of the management of Karur Vysya Bank Ltd., Karur in terminating the services of Sarva Shri Anderson Collin, K. Balachandran, A. Joseph, P. Ganesan, T. R. Venkatachalapathi and A. George Mansingh w.e.f. 2-3-1986 is justified? If not, to what relief are the concerned workmen entitled?"

6. The Point.—The reference has been made to decide the action of the management of Karur Vysya Bank Ltd., in terminating the services of 6 workmen w.e.f. 2-3-86 was justified. If not to decide the relief to which they are entitled. The case of the petitioner union is that these workmen were employed by the respondent bank in their new office at Karur and subsequently w.e.f. 2-3-86 the management had terminated their service. However, the management has contended that these workmen were not at all employed by them, they had a contract one security detective bureau that these workmen were employed by the said bureau and deployed to the security work in the bank and except their deployment for security work there was no connection between these workmen and the respondent bank. It was also contended on the side of the respondent that the contract entered into between the security detective bureau and the bank on 13-9-1983 would clearly prove that these 6 persons have no connection with the respondent bank. The security detective bureau had directed these 6 workmen to appear in their office at Coimbatore on 1-3-1986 to get postings and there was no occasion for the respondent bank to terminate the services of these workmen. The petitioner union further urged that they filed a complaint before the character of the petitioner union saying that the majority labour (regulation and abolition) Act, that though the Sessions Court at Trichy allowed the Criminal Appeal 88/1988 filed by the bank the fact remains that they had contravened the provisions of the said Act and in order to exploit these workmen they labelled them as contract labour with a view to get cheap labour. The management has denied their liability under the said Act and further contended that the said Act is not at all applicable to the instant case.

7. The management has questioned the representative character of the petitioner union saying that the majority of the workmen are not members of the petitioner union and this dispute has not been espoused validly by the petitioner union. However MW1 has admitted that the petitioner union is a recognised union of the respondent bank. WW1 in his evidence has admitted that except Ex. W-1 and W-2 no other resolution was passed to raise the dispute regarding the alleged non-employment of these workmen. Further he has confirm that no resolution was passed to raise the dispute in respect of the non-employment of these workmen. Therefore the evidence of WW1 is clear that no resolution much less a valid resolution has been passed by the general body of the petitioner union regarding the unemployment of these workmen. This ground will certainly go against the petitioner-union. The other question that the petitioner union is not having the support of the majority of the workmen working in the respondent bank to espouse the cause of these workmen cannot be accepted for the simple reason that the petitioner union is the recognised union by the respondent management. However, the other reason that there was no proper resolution by the petitioner union to raise a dispute of this nature will certainly go against the case of the petitioner union.

8. It is the case of the management that they had entered into a contract with security detective bureau on 13-9-1983 and as per the provision of the contract the Security Detective Bureau alone was liable for the engagement of these workmen and not the respondent bank. To substantiate the same the main provisions of the contract have been stated in the counter statement filed by the respondent. The articles of agreement entered into between the respondent bank and the security directive bureau Ltd., Madras-34 are marked Ex. M-3 and M-4, Cl. 7 of Ex. M-3 says :

"The SDB shall be responsible for the payment of all salaries wages and allowances payable to the security personnel."

In Cl. 12 the Security Detective Bureau has undertaken to cover the members of its security force under the Employees' State Insurance Scheme and also other statutory requirements such as leave, bonus, and gratuity to the members of the security force deployed by them. Cl. 14 says:

"The members of the security force provided by the SDB shall be employees of the SDB and not of the principals to any extent and all the disputes between SDB and security force shall have no bearing on the principals."

From the above said provisions it is clear that the workmen were engaged by the security detective bureau and not by the respondent management and as such they shall be employees of the bureau and any dispute between the security detective bureau and the security force shall have no bearing on the respondent bank.

9. At this juncture, it is pertinent to note that answers given by WW-1 in the cross-examination wherein he has admitted that he as seen the workmen concerned in this dispute about two months back. But he was not aware as to what work they are doing for the past 10 years and added that he did not know other those men were working after 1-3-86 and such informations can be had only from them. This piece of evidence of MW1 would go to show that he was not aware of the real facts about the employment of workmen. WW1 further admitted that there was no category of watchmen in the respondent bank and also in their branches. It is clear that these six workmen could not have been appointed by the bank, as watchmen as claimed by the petitioner union. Ex. M.3 and also the evidence of WW1 confirm the fact that these workmen were employed by the security detective bureau and not by the bank as the bank had no category of workmen as watchman.

10. It was the contention of the petitioner union that the bank employee number of persons for the purpose of cleaning, sweeping and washing of the premises and in order to exploit these workmen they labelled them as contract labour thereby keeping these workmen under tenderhook as they cannot demand any benefit.

11. It was stated in the claim statement regarding the complaint preferred by the petitioner-union followed by a criminal case and the subsequent appeal ended in favour of the management. These facts cannot attract our consideration in this dispute as the main question raised herein is one of the non-employment of the 6 persons. However, since the petitioner union has raised the issue of contravening the provisions of the Contract Labour Act by the management it is better to decide the same in proper perspective.

The petitioner union has submitted a ruling in AIR India Vs. Union Labour Union (1992 II LLN 898) to show that the appropriate Government to initiate action against the respondent is the Central Government. There is no dispute that the appropriate Government is the Central Government to initiate any action for the contravention of any of the provisions of the Act. Both the parties have drawn pay attention to a decision of the Apex Court in Gujarat Electricity Board, THS. Gujarat Vs. HIND Mazdoor Sabha (1995 II I.L.J P 790) at page 814 it has been held as follows :

"When such dispute is raised it is not for abolition of the contract labour, but for a declaration that the workmen concerned are in fact the employees of the principal employer and for consequential reliefs on such declaration. If, however, the contract is genuine, the direct workmen of the principal employer may espouse the industrial dispute for abolition of the contract labour system and for absorption of the contractor's workmen as the direct workmen of the principal employer. When such dispute is raised by the direct workmen of the principal employer, the industrial adjudicator can entertain the reference but in view of the provisions of Sec. 10 of the Act, he will have first to direct the workmen to approach the appropriate Government for considering the question as to whether the contract labour in question should or should not be abolished under the said provisions. If on such reference being made by the workmen the appropriate govt. does not abolish the contract labour, the industrial adjudicator has to reject the reference since the jurisdiction to abolish the contract is exclusively vested in the appropriate government and he has no jurisdiction to adjudicate the dispute."

The management has argued that no dispute can be raised directly before the Tribunal. But in the instant case reference has been made by the appropriate government. The petitioner cannot raise any question or claim any benefit under the Act. However in the said decision at page 811, it was held as follows :

"The last but equally important question that remains to be answered is : who can raise an industrial dispute for absorption of the workmen of the ex-contractor by the principal employer. As has been pointed out earlier, if the contract is not genuine, the workmen of the contractor themselves can raise such dispute. Since in raising such dispute the workmen concerned would be proceeding on the basis that they are in fact the workmen of the principal employer and not of the contractor. Hence the dispute would squarely fall within the definition of Sec. 2(k) of the I.D. Act being a dispute between the employer and the employee. In that case, the dispute would not be for the abolition of the contract labour, but for securing the appropriate service 'labour', but for securing the appropriate service conditions from the principal employer on the footing that the workmen concerned were always the employees of the principal employer and they were denied their dues. In such a dispute, the workmen are required to establish that the so called labour contract was sham and was only a camouflage to deny them their legitimate dues."

The petitioner union has relied on the above passage and argued that it has got every right to file the disputes u/s. 2(k) of the I.D. Act questioning the termination of the service of these workmen. Following the above observation, the supreme Court further held at page 811,

"However, the situation is obviously different when the labour contract is genuine and there is relationship of employer-employee between the principal employer and the workmen of the contractor. No industrial dispute can be raised by the workman of the contractor either before or after the contract labour is abolished by the appropriate Government under Sec. 10 of the I.D. Act. This hurdle in raising the dispute will however disappear if it is raised by the direct workmen of the principal employer who have (i) community of interest with the contract labour (ii) a substantial interest in the subject matter of this dispute and (iii) when the employer can grant the relief."

At page 815 the Supreme Court in para (IV) held

"Even after the contract labour system is abolished the direct employees of the principal employer can raise an industrial dispute for absorption of the contractor's workmen and the adjudicator on the material placed before him can decide as to who and how many of the workmen should be absorbed and on what terms."

At page 822 para 65 it was held :

"For all these reasons we are unable to accept the contention that the industrial adjudicator cannot direct the principal employer to engage ex-contractor's workman as direct employees."

10. From the foregoing passage it is clear that the industrial adjudicator can direct the principal employer to engage ex-contractor's workmen as direct employees. In the instant case it is clear that these six workmen were engaged by the Security Detective Bureau and these workmen were deployed to the respondent bank for security purpose. Such persons employed by the security detective bureau were also sent to other organisations for similar purposes or some allied purpose. In the present case these six workmen were directed by the Security Detective Bureau to appear in their Coimbatore office on 1-3-1986 for taking posting. In the circumstances of the case it cannot be said that the services of these six workmen were denied by the respondent bank w.e.f. 2-3-86. As the dispute has been raised u/s. 2(k) by the petitioner-union which is recognised by the management, the provisions of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition Act) 1970, need not be given such importance, as the reference has been passed by the competent government under the Act i.e. the Central Government. However there was no valid resolution to raise the dispute of this nature by the general body of the petitioner union. The admission of WW1 that there is no category as security in the respondent bank would go to show that the respondent has no chance of making these workmen as their employees. Though the works of security guard is of perennial nature we have to see the position of these workmen and not the nature of the job. The management which was interested in its own security could have created a category of workmen for their security purpose. However they have not done so. Further they had insured their new building with United India Insurance Co. Ltd., to safeguard it from accident. In this context it is worthwhile to say that some other workman engaged for other purposes like cleaning sweeping, and maintenance of garden were made as permanent employees of the respondent bank, but whereas these workmen alone were left out. The other workmen engaged in dissimilar work were made permanent because of the perennial nature of such work. It is clear from the counter filed by the respondent management that they engaged these six workmen through the security detective bureau by way of abundant caution to have some more security. Whether the bank requests a separate guard or not is a matter exclusively with the discretion of the bank. We cannot thrust an order on them saying that as a bank they need security and therefore the services of these men should be regularised. At the same time when the bank had thought fit to engage some security guards through the security detective bureau for the time being or for more period the intention of the bank cannot be taken as an unfair labour practice since if necessary the bank would have engaged security guards permanently, thereby to give more security to its properties. When the bank has not adopted the said method and engaged them through an agency, clearly shows the intention of the bank not to have permanent security arrangement. Further as the workmen were directed by the security detective bureau to appear in their office on 1-6-1986 to get posts. So, it is not the case of termination of their services by the bank. For all reasons the workmen herein are not entitled to get any benefit from the respondent bank.

In the result, award passed dismissing the claim of the workmen. No costs.

Dated, this the 21st day of February 1997.

AWARD

This reference has been made for adjudication of the following issue :—

"Whether the action of the management of Southern Railway, Madras in terminating the services of Smt. Eswari, Ex-safaiwali, Kodambakkam Station, w.o.f. 1-9-1979 is justified? If not, to what relief the workman is entitled?"

WWI examined. Records perused. The petitioner's husband was employed in Railways and he died. The petitioner joined railways on 19-7-76 as Safaiwali and worked till her dismissal on 17-8-87. The charge against her was that she and her son got appointment in the railways by showing the death of her husband. The petitioner has contended that her son got employment independently and without showing the death of his father and she alone got her employment on the basis of her husband's death. There is no document except the claim statement filed by the petitioner and her oral evidence before Court. The respondent has not filed counter. As the petitioner is challenging her dismissal and also that the respondent has not filed counter, at this stage exparte award has to be passed. Accordingly exparte award passed for reinstatement, continuity of service, backwages and other attendant benefits.

The Government of India, Ministry of Labour, in exercise of the powers conferred on them under Section 10(1)(d) and sub-section 2(A) of the I. D. Act, 1947 has referred the following dispute to this Tribunal for adjudication vide their Order No. L-120/2/11/92-J.R. (B-III), dated the 19th/21st October, 1992.

SCHEDULE

"Whether the management of Koshi Chhetriya Gramin Bank in terminating the services of Shri Shankar Prasad Sahu and further refusing to reinstate him in his service with back wages is proper and justified? If not, to what relief is the workman entitled?"

2. The workman has appeared and filed W.S. stating inter alia that he was employed in Koshi Chhetriya Gramin Bank and was posted at Kursa Kanta branch of the Bank where he worked for 24 years from the year 1977 and thereafter he was transferred to Taiyabpur branch where he worked for 14 years i.e. till September, 1983 and he was working continuously in these periods. But thereafter without any reason he was stopped from work and when he brought this fact to the notice of the Main Office of the Bank he was employed again at Purnea branch of the Bank where he worked for a short period and again he was stopped from work. He made several representations orally and in writing but nothing was done. In the meantime he fell ill and was taken to Delhi by a well wisher for treatment and care and he consulted with a lawyer of the Supreme Court who sent several registered letters to the Chhetriya Gramin Bank and other authorities to provide him work but no action was taken by the management. Then he raised industrial dispute before the ALC (C) Patna and in the conciliation proceeding the management pleaded that he had left the work of the Bank of his own will and the management did not terminate him. The management also admitted the number of days worked by the workman for the period 1978 to 1984 and which was more than 240 days in a calendar year 1981 and 1982 and near about 240 days in 1978 and 1983 and under the provision of 25-B of the I. D. Act, 1947 he was entitled for continuous service and he could neither be discharged nor could he be terminated without following the provision of Section 25-F of the I. D. Act, 1947. No notice or notice compensation was given to him and on this ground alone the termination of the concerned workman is illegal and unjustified. It is also said that no domestic enquiry was held prior to the termination of the services of the concerned workman and the action of the management was justified and illegal and it is said that the Award be passed in favour of the workman for his reinstatement with back wages.

3. I find that the management of Koshi Chhetriya Gramin Bank has appeared and filed W.S. stating therein that the concerned workman was never employed in the said Bank rather he was given work casually as and when required basis and he worked for an hour or so and he was paid wages at pro rata basis @ Rs. 1.5 and Rs. 6.50 during the period. He also worked as Sweeper and Waterman and no post was given to him and payment was made to him through vouchers on pro rata basis and there was no relationship of employer and employee between them as per the provision of the Act. He also did not make claim for regularisation nor any I. D. was raised and he was satisfied in working as casual worker on pro rata basis and after work for 1 or two hours he used to serve as a domestic servant in some private employment and since 1984 he never turned up in the Bank for work and abandoned the same of his own. He also absconded as he was involved in some criminal case and was working under some private contractor at Delhi.

4. It is also said that on return from Delhi the workman tried to get some work in the Bank as there was no need of such workman, so no work was given to him and he raised an industrial dispute individually before the ALC (C) Patna which he was not entitled as per Section 2(A) of the I. D. Act. It is also said that he is not a member of any trade union registered or recognised and he has raised the dispute under Section 2(A) of the I. D. Act and it has to be shown that he was actually the regular employee of the management and thereafter the question of termination arises. It is further stated that the question of termination of 'Casual worker' does not arise because no appointment is given to a casual worker rather he is engaged according to the need casually and it automatically comes to an end after expiry of such period of engagement. It is said that for the first time he has filed a complaint before the ALC (C) Patna suppressing the real and misrepresenting the fact and as a result of which the dispute was referred to the Ministry and reference made to this Tribunal which is bad-in-law, full of ambiguity, null and void. Due to laps of time also this dispute was not tenable legally.

5. By way of rejoinder to the W.S. of the workman the same is denied parawise and specifically as it is said to be incorrect and denied. It is also said that the provision of Section 25 B and F of the I. D. Act is not applicable in this case as it is not covered under the said provision. It is also said that such dispute cannot be raised individually under Section 2(A) of the I. D. Act as it is not a case of termination of service and no domestic enquiry was held and no such order was passed by the management at all. It is finally said that the claim of the workman is not justified at all and the Award be passed accordingly.

6. A rejoinder has been filed by the workman to the W.S. of the management denying the contentions specifically and parawise and the same is said to be incorrect and denied.

7. On the basis of the pleadings of the parties the points for consideration in this reference are :—

(a) Whether the action of the management in terminating the services of the concerned workman is justified?

(b) If not, to what relief or reliefs the workman is entitled?

8. Both the points are inter linked and are taken together for consideration.

9. In support of its case the management has examined only one witness MW-1 Shri Rabindra Kumar Singh who has said that he knew the concerned workman who was never employed by the management of the Bank. But at Taiyabpur branch he worked as casual mazdoor and at that time this witness was posted as Sr. Personnel Manager at the Head Office at Purnea. He has further stated that the workman used to work for half an hour to two hours per day as Water Boy and also doing cleaning and Sweeping job. But he was not working on regular basis and was working as and when required. In the year 1984 he left the job of his own without informing the management and MW-1 has proved a letter dated 27-9-91 bearing the signature of Shri P. K. Singh, Branch Manager of Taiyabpur branch marked Fvt. M-1 and thereafter he never came back to the Bank to be put back on the job, and after seven years he raised the dispute with the ALC (C) Patna and in the meantime he never intimated the management that he had fallen ill and he had gone to Delhi for treatment. He has proved two certificates from the Notified Area committee marked X and X/1 for identification and another letter written by Mahan Prasad, the then Branch Manager, Taibpur branch dated 17-12-91 marked Ext. M-1/1. Further he had admitted that concerned workman worked for more than 240 days in the calendar year. He has been cross-examined and has stated that he attended the conciliation proceeding at Patna and the rejoinder filed by the management was marked Ext. W-1 and the document alleged to be signed by the workman marked Y, Y/1 for identification. The concerned workman left the job while working at Taibpur branch and the reason for his leaving the job is mentioned in Ext. M-1 but no enquiry in the matter was made in the light of Ext. M-1. He could not say as to whether the Chairman of the Bank passed order to make enquiry or not. There is simply information from the co-villager that the workman was working at Delhi. He could say whether Mr. P. K. Jha, an officer of the Bank submitted any enquiry report after visiting the village of the workman or not. He also stated that vouchers would be available in the Bank to show that the wages received by the workman was on pro rata basis. No other witness was examined by the management.

10. Similarly the workman examined himself as WW-1 and tried to support his case as given in his W.S. and has further stated that in the year 1984 he was finally stopped from work by the management. Thereafter he made verbal request to the management to reinstate him but nothing was done. Then he approached the Trade Union and they did not file any case and then he went to Delhi and Mr. R. D. Rathore, an Advocate of the Supreme Court sent notice to the Chairman of the Bank as well as to the Branch Manager but no reply was received from them or any action was taken by the management and finally he raised dispute before the ALC (C) Patna and he also denied that he left the job of his own. He has proved photo copies of his application marked Ext. W-2 and photo copies of notices marked Ext. W-3 series and postal receipts certificate of posting Ext. W-4 series. He also stated that he worked for more than 240 days in a calendar year and the action of the management in stopping him from work is illegal and unjustified.

11. He has further stated that he has got no appointment letter as he was appointed verbally on 21-3-77 and this date was not mentioned by his lawyer at the time of writing W.S. He has stated that he was stopped in the year 1983 from the document of bonus paper but he could not say the date of such document. He has further stated that he applied to the Manager, Taibpur branch for his reinstatement but the copy of the same is not with him nor he could say the date of such application. Also he has got no paper to show that he filed an application for reinstatement before the Officer of the Bank. He was transferred to Purnea Head Office but no such transfer order is with him nor he could say the date of such transfer. He has also no paper of the stoppage of his work by the Purnea Head Office in the year 1984 and for that he did not give any writing and simply made verbal request to the Officer of the Branch. He was not a member of any Trade Union nor he could say the name of the union to which he prayed for raising the dispute. He could not say the date of his departure to Delhi but he went in the year 1987 and from 1984 to 1987 he simply requested verbally to the bank for reinstatement. He could not show any paper that he was living with his father and his father never lived in Delhi. He has denied that he was casually working in the Bank as and when required and whenever he was engaged by the time of such engagement was only for one hour or so and he further denied that he was being paid on hourly basis. He has also denied that he left Purnea for taking a new job there and he further denied that he is stating that he made false claim after lapse of seven years. No other witness was examined on behalf of the workman.

12. The management has filed Ext. M-1 and M-1/1 which are letters given by the Manager, Taibpur branch to the Head Office of the Bank and two letters are marked X and X/1 for identification.

13. Similarly the workman has filed Ext. W-1, reply given by the management before the ALC (C) Patna in which days of work engaged by the workman from the year 1981 to 1984 was stated for 240 days in 12 calendar month as per admission of the management. Ext. W-2 is a letter dated 24-2-92 given by the workman raising the dispute. Ext. W-3 series are letters given by Mr. Rathore an Advocate of the Supreme Court to the management. Ext. W-4 series are photo copies of posting under certificate. Y and Y/1 are marked for identification and such letters have been given by the workman to the ALC (C) Patna. There is no other document.

14. While arguing the case it has been submitted on behalf of the workman that as per show cause filed by the management before the ALC (C) Patna it is admitted that he worked for more than 240 days in a calendar year and this fact has also been admitted by MW-1 in his evidence. It is also submitted that he had worked for seven years regularly with the management and his stoppage of work was without any notice or notice compensation was illegal and unjustified and he is entitled for his reinstatement as he was raising the matter before the management orally since 1984 regularly and going to Delhi written notices were also sent to the management through the lawyer vide Ext. W-3 series from the year 1989 to till 1991, as such it cannot be said that the claim of the workman was stale and it was raised after seven years although he has got no paper to show that he represented his case before the management after his stoppage in the year 1984 but as per Ext. W-3 series such written representations were sent through the lawyer from the year 1989—1991 and it cannot be said to be stale claim. It was also denied that he was working with the Bank only for one or two hours and was paid on pro rata basis through vouchers as on such voucher was produced by the bank management to substantiate such contention. It is further submitted that he worked regularly for the management for a period of seven years and thereafter his stoppage from work after completion of 240 days in a calendar year. The action of the management was totally unjustified and void ab initio as no notice or notice compensation as provided under Section 25-F of the I. D. Act was given and he is entitled for reinstatement in service with full back wages and other benefits.

15. On the other hand it has been submitted on behalf of the management that the claim of the workman is totally false and frivolous and no appointment letter or termination letter have been produced by the workman to show that actually he was appointed in the Bank or terminated by the management in the year 1984 and he raised only the voice that he was simply working as casual worker as and when required in the Bank and as Water Boy doing sweeping work for one or two hours and payment was made through vouchers on pro rata basis @ Rs. 4, 5 or 6 per day only. It is also submitted that he has stopped coming to the Bank from the year 1984 and went to Delhi for getting a job and was working there under some private contractor and thereafter he raised the dispute individually before the ALC (C) Patna which he was not competent as provided under Section 2(A) of the I. D. Act and as he was not dismissed or terminated from his work and no paper to this fact has been filed to prove this contention of the workman. So far the rejoinder filed by the management before the ALC (C) Patna where it has been shown that he had worked for more than 240 days in the year 1981 and 1982 and it is clear that thereafter the workman has never raised the dispute for his regularisation nor any dispute was raised and no paper has been filed by the workman to show that any such representation was given by the workman to the management prior to raising the dispute in the year 1991 before the ALC (C) Patna. It is further submitted that as the workman left the job in the year 1984 on his own and the dispute has been raised after lapse of seven years, it is a stale claim and with influx of the time the workman has lost his claim, if any, about his regularisation of job as held by the Hon'ble Supreme Court in a number of decisions. It is also submitted that there is no relationship of employer and employee between the workman and the management and as he was never a regular employee of the management and he was never terminated from service by the management. So the question of giving notice or notice compensation under Section 25-F of the I. D. Act, 1947 did not arise as the workman has not been dismissed as the regular workman of the management, he is not entitled to raise dispute under Section 2(A) of the Act. He was never a member of the Trade Union nor he could say the name of the Trade Union to which he approached but such union never raised the dispute as admitted by the workman himself. It is also admitted in the W.S. of the workman that he fell ill seriously and was taken to Delhi by his well wishes for treatment and care whereas in his evidence he stated that he went to Delhi where he lived with his father. Both the statements, in his W.S. and evidence are self contradictory and same cannot be relied upon.

16. Perused the evidence both oral and documentary as given by the parties. It is an admitted fact that the workman has no paper to show that actually he was appointed in the Bank in the year 1977 as claimed by him and that his termination was from 1984. He has further admitted he has no paper to show that he wrote representations to the management for his reinstatement after the year 1984 and he had simply made oral request to the management as there is nothing to show that he was a regular worker terminated or dismissed by the management without following the provision of Section 25-F of the I. D. Act, as such the raising of dispute by the workman individually under Section 2(A) of the I. D. Act also comes under dispute. I also find much force in the plea of the management that it is a stale claim as it has been raised after a lapse of seven years and so far copies of the notices sent by the lawyer of the concerned workman is concerned the said lawyer or any other workman has not been examined in this case to substantiate this contention that actually any such notices were sent even by any person or such lawyer and that he was practising in the Hon'ble Supreme Court of India, New Delhi because the management has taken the plea that after leaving the work of his own in the year 1984 the workman never gave any intimation or notice to the management till the year 1991 when they got copies of the dispute raised by the workman before the ALC (C) Patna at the end of the year 1991. Under the above circumstances the plea of the management that the workman left his casual work and went to Delhi for his private work gets credence as the same has not been controverted by any cogent or credible evidence on behalf of the workman. It is also clear that this dispute was raised by the workman after long gap of period of on showing by come one else just with a view to get employment in the Bank on the alleged claim that he had worked in the Bank regularly for the year 1977 for which he has no paper to show and as per contention has been transferred from one branch to another but he has not also such transfer order with him to prove this claim.

17. In this view of the matter I find that there is nothing to show that the workman was terminated from service by the management in the year 1984 and the claim of the workman for his reinstatement with full back wages is not genuine and justified. I do not find any illegality or irregularity in the alleged action of the management or stoppage of work to the workman as it is clear that he has left his casual job with the Bank in the year 1984 and as such the workman is not entitled for any relief as claimed. Thus both the points are decided in favour of the management. Hence the following Award is rendered :—

"The management of Koshi Chhetriya Gramin Bank in alleged terminating the services of Shri Shankar Prasad Sahu and further refusing him to reinstate in his service with back wages is proper and justified and consequently the concerned workman is not entitled to any relief."

18. However, there will be order as to costs.

ANNEXURE

IN THE LABOUR COURT, KOZHICODE, KERALA STATE

Dated this the 31st day of March, 1997

Shri P. Q. Barkath Ali, B.Sc., LL.B., Presiding Officer

9. Ext. W1 is the certificate issued by the Manager of the Thalainambha branch of the management bank showing the details of the number of days worked by the workman under the management. It is certified in Ext. W1 that the workman has worked as Substitute Messenger on daily wage basis for 39 days during the calendar year 1985, for 193 days during the calendar year 1986, and for 147 days during 1987. It is further certified in Ext. W1 that the workman has worked as casual labourer for 126 days during the year 1987 and for 130 days during 1988. In the counter statement filed by the management the number of days worked by the workman under the management as shown in Ext. W1 is admitted. It is further stated in the counter statement of the management that the workman has worked for 222 days during the calendar year 1988, for 140 days during 1989, for 204 days during 1990, for 102 days during 1991 and for 93 days during 1992. It is clear from Ext. W1 that during the calendar year 1987 the workman has worked continuously for 273 days. That being so, he is entitled to claim protection under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act.

10. It was argued by the counsel for the management that the number of days worked by the workman as casual labourer should not be taken into account for calculating 240 days of service of workman for the purpose of claiming protection under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. There is no merit in the above contention. No document is produced by the management to show that the workman has worked as a casual labourer under management from August 1987 onwards as claimed by the management. On the other hand, Ext. M1 to M6 the Local Delivery Books for the period from 2-1-1987 to 11-10-1993 and Local Collection Books Ext. M7 series during the period from 2-1-1988 to 31-3-1992 show that the workman was working as a Substitute Messenger under the management. Even otherwise it has been held in L. Krishnan v. Southern Railway (1972-II-LJ-568) that even a casual worker who complies with the requirements of section 25F of the Act is entitled to claim protection under section 25F of the Act. That being so, even if it is to be taken that the workman has worked as a casual labourer under the management his service as a casual labourer has also to be taken into account in computing the period of 240 days of continuous service for the purpose of claiming protection under section 25F of the Act.

11. Another argument advanced by the management is that a bipartite settlement has been made between the Staff Federation of State Bank of India and the management on November 17, 1987 which was amended by subsequent settlements dated July 16, 1988 and January 9, 1991 by which it was agreed to make a list of the casual employees to be absorbed as permanent employees and that therefore the claim put forward by the workman in this dispute cannot be entertained in view of the above settlements. Exts. M-10, M-11 and M-12 are the attested copies of the abovementioned settlements. There is no substance in the above contention. It is not shown before me that the workman was a member of Staff Federation of State Bank of India. It is admitted by MW1 when cross-examined that the temporary employees are not members of the Staff Federation union. That being so, the abovementioned settlements are not binding on the workman. It is also not shown before me how the above mentioned settlements would affect the right of the workman to claim protection under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act.

12. Though not raised in the counter-statement, at the time of the argument the counsel for the management contended that the period of 12 calendar months mentioned in section 25B of the Industrial Disputes Act has to be reckoned immediately preceding from the date of termination of the service of the workman. The above contention of the management is without any substance. Nothing is stated in section 25B of the Industrial Disputes Act, that the period of 12 calendar months has to be reckoned immediately preceding from the date of termination of the service of the workman. Even otherwise in the present case it is admitted by MW1 when cross-examined that from August 1991 to August 1992 the workman has worked for 153 days. He further stated that 18 intervening Sundays and 52 intervening holidays were not taken into account in computing the number of working days of the workman as 153. It has been held in workmen AEIB Corporation vs. Management AEIB Corporation (AIR 1986 Supreme Court 458) that while counting 240 days for the purpose of section 25B of Industrial Disputes Act, intervening Sundays and holidays also will have to be counted. Thus, the workman has worked for more than 240 days during the period of 12 calendar months immediately preceding the date of his termination from service. That being so, he shall be deemed to be in service for the period of one year for the purpose of claiming protection under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. Having regard to all these, I hold that the workman has worked continuously for a period of 240 days during a period of 12 calendar months under the management as provided in sections 25B and 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. It follows that the workman is entitled to claim permanency and protection under section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act.

13. Point No. 3.—It is admitted that the workman has been retrenched from service without complying with the provisions of section 25F of the Industrial Disputes Act. It follows and I hold that the termination of the service of workman by the management is invalid and illegal.

14. Point No. 4.—As the termination of the service of the workman is found to be invalid he is entitled to be reinstated in service with continuity of service and other attendant benefits. No evidence is adduced by the management to show that the workman was gainfully employed elsewhere during the period he was kept out of employment. Therefore he is also entitled to full backwages from the date of termination of his service till he is reinstated.

15. There is another aspect in this case. The workman was only a temporary employee under the management. Only when there was work he was employed by the management. It is admitted that he was paid Rs. 30/- per day as wages. Taking into consideration all these aspects I fix his backwages as Rs. 7200/- per year i.e. at the rate of Rs. 30/- per day for 240 days.

16. In the result, an award is passed holding that the termination of the service of the workman by the management is invalid. The management shall reinstate him in service with backwages, continuity of service and other attendant benefits. He is entitled to backwages at the rate of Rs. 7200 per year from the date of his termination till reinstatement.

Dictated to the Confidential Assistant, transcribed by him, revised, corrected and passed by me on the 31st day of March, 1997.

AWARD

1. Central Government, Ministry of Labour, vide its Notification Number L-12012/276/91-I.R. (B-II) dated 7-2-92, has referred the following dispute for adjudication to this Tribunal—

Whether the claim of Sri Jagannath Kahar that his services were terminated by the management of Allahabad Bank w.e.f. 1-2-90 is correct? If so is the termination of services of Sri Kahar is justified. Whether the action of the management in not calling the workman for interview for absorption in the regular service of the bank justified? If not what relief is the workman entitled?

2. The case of Jagannath Kahar is that he was engaged as Sweeper at Kehrora Branch of opposite party in District

Hamirpur from 1-9-81 and worked upto 1-2-90. He had completed 240 days in a year hence provisions of Section 25-F I.D. Act were applicable to him. In normal course he ought to have been made permanent but inspite of doing so he was removed from service without payment of retrenchment compensation and notice pay w.e.f. 1-2-90 and further not giving him opportunity when fresh hands time worker.

4. In the rejoining this fact has been denied.

5. In support of his case the concerned workman has filed Ext. W-1 to W-4 relating to his educational qualification. Further he had adduced his evidence. In rebuttal management has filed M-1 to M-12 which are vouchers to prove that the concerned workman was being paid wages for sweeping. Apart from this there is evidence of Hari Mohan Kapoor MW-1 Senior Manager of the Bank.

6. One of the pleading of the parties is that the concerned workman being part time worker had left the job of his own. This fact has been proved by Hari Mohan Kapoor MW-1. However, this fact has not been rebuttal by the concerned workman Jagannath Kahar. Hence the version of the management on this score is unrebutted. Accordingly relying upon this evidence it is held that the concerned workman had left the job. Question of holding domestic enquiry against this abandonment does not arises he was not a whole time worker. It is well settled law that when a workman leaves the job of his own none of the provisions of I. D. Act would be available. Accordingly my award is that the concerned workman had left the job of his own and he was not removed from service. As such validity to removal of service does not arise at all.

7. Consequently, the concerned workman will not be entitled for any relief.
